TESTIMONIAL BENEFIT TO FIRE CHIEF OCT. 5

W. B. Cause Who Organized Boyes Springs and Valley Fire Department To be Honored.

A big testimonial benefit for Chief W. B. Cause of the Boyes Springs and Valley Fire Department is being arranged by the many loyal friends and admirers throughout Sonoma Valley for Thursday night, Oct. 5th. High class vaudeville artists from leading circuits including George Sylvano Dale and Delphine, the dancers and others, in a whirlwind bill and the best jazz music for dancing will make the program one of the best ever presented to a Sonoma Valley audience. Stanley's Silhouette, Fun-in-Shadowland is a big act in itself.

The theatre should be packed to the doors and those who cannot come should take tickets for there is no more public spirited or deserving man in Sonoma County than Chief Cause. His work in the purchase of fire engines and the maintenance of the volunteer department to protect life and property in Sonoma Valley is unique. The record of the department speaks for itself and there is scarcely a week passes but that the Valley Angel and the Little Red Devil, manned with Chief Cause and his intrepid fire ladies, do not render valuable service.

Remember the benefit date—Thursday night, Oct. Fifth and be there to show by your presence that you appreciate the work of the department. The Chief and his men serve without pay and their public service should be recognized on this occasion.

WISE HOME AT GLEN ELLEN SCENE OF FINE AFTERNOON

The entertainment accorded the members of the M. E. Ladies Aid Thursday of last week was the most gracious sort of hospitality. Mrs. Shirley Weise and Mrs. J. H. Weise are always hospitable hostesses. Their home is arranged for ideal entertaining and they have the happy faculty of making everyone feel at home.

Mrs. Shirley Weise (Myrtle Minkel) is a sweet singer and sang several selections during the afternoon. Rev. Mr. Crowe is a second John McCormick and did himself proud, the ladies much appreciating his songs. Refreshments were delicious and in great abundance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Center arrived in Sonoma Monday noon from Colfax, Illinois, and will make their future home in the Valley of the Moon.

BOARD OF TRADE APPRECIATES EXHIBIT

The following letter from H. J. Waters of Santa Rosa, secretary of the Sonoma County Board of Trade, is self-explanatory:

Santa Rosa, Sept. 20, 1922.
Charles LaTorres, Secy.,
Business Men's Assn.,
Sonoma, Cal.

My Dear Mr. LaTorres:—
I desire to express to you and through you to the members of your organization and the young ladies who assisted you in the distribution of the pears at the State Fair in Sacramento, my heartfelt thanks for their co-operation in the matter of an exhibit from Sonoma county.

It is to be regretted that your growers did not see the opportunity as others did and secure the publicity an exhibit of your beautiful fruit would have given the district as well as the cash prizes which went elsewhere. I assure you that with such a display as you could have had from the fruit you gave away, the exhibitors could have won every prize offered in that class.

The donors of the fruit and those who made it possible to get there and distribute it have made a name for the community that will long be remembered by those who enjoyed eating of it. May their example lead others to participate next year in a fine pear exhibit.

Accept my thanks for the part you took in the urging of the people and for the young ladies who accompanied you upon that occasion. The task was well done.

Very truly yours,
Sonoma County Board of Trade,
H. J. Waters, Secy.

Mrs. L. Breitenbach and Family.

Fire Destroyed St. Francis Church

Flames Started On Steeple and Swept Entire Structure. Fire Departments Saved the Home and Adjacent Property

Thursday afternoon, a little after one o'clock, flames broke out in the steeple of St. Francis Catholic Church and before the arrival of the fire departments, had gained such headway that the entire structure was burned to the ground. The fire had its origin on the portion of the building where Muller & Downey were burning off old paint. In some way, one of their blow torches communicated to a hollow column on the front of the church which acted like a flue and started the fire skyward. The painters seeing that they were powerless to cope with the blaze and that the ladders by which they had ascended would soon be caught in the flames, made a hurried descent to the ground. Meanwhile an alarm for the fire department had been rung in, but the engine was at the Sebastiani tract, fighting a grass fire which menaced the home of Mrs. Louis Breitenbach. The firemen however rushed the apparatus to the church fire, leaving the Breitenbach fire to the Sebastiani protective system. When they arrived, the church was a seething mass of flames and it was apparent that all effort should be directed to saving the handsome new parochial residence and other nearby property. A heavy wind sprang up and carried burning embers to adjacent roofs and fields and for two hours the entire town was menaced.

The firemen fought valiantly, battling back the flames from the priest's house and saving what they could of the sacred statuary and other valuable contents from the interior of the church. Several times, the old Tivnen property, across the street, the home of Muller & Downey, took fire as did also the Barracchi home, two blocks away, the Cheney property, Castagnet barn and other structures. Volunteers aided by one of the chemical engines from Boyes Springs repeatedly put out incipient blazes, grass fires, burning trees, blazing fences etc.

Boyes Springs sent both chemical engines to assist the Sonoma department and they did excellent work.

The Sonoma engine had two good streams of water on the fire which proved very effective, particularly when the steeple fell in and added more fuel to the seething flames.

By three o'clock, charred embers were all that remained of the stately old church, built by the late John M. Burke some twenty-six years ago.

Rev. J. F. Byrne estimates the loss of the parish at $40,000, with little insurance. Besides the loss of the church and its furnishings, the contracting painters and carpenters who were repainting and repairing it lost valuable tools and materials to the value of several hundred dollars.

Had the fire occurred five minutes later, Contractor O'Brien's men who were to repair the belfry and had started to ascend, might have been trapped by the flames. O'Brien, when about half way up, scented the smoke and came down to investigate.

That no loss of life occurred and no one was injured at the fire comforts Rev. Father Byrne, who while greatly regretting the loss, already plans to rebuild. The money which was to go into the improvements of the old property will be added to the insurance recovered and with the help of the good people of this and neighboring parishes, it is believed that a new St. Francis Church will soon rise from the ashes. On Nov. 3rd in San Francisco at the St. Francis Hotel, former parishoners and friends of Father Byrne had already arranged a big benefit "500" party and dancette to assist the Sonoma parish in making improvements. Thursday's catastrophe will make these loyal friends of the parish more than ever anxious to aid the popular pastor recoup the heavy loss suffered through the burning of the church.

This is the second time Sonoma's Catholic church has been destroyed by fire. The former fire, 26 years ago, started from a grass fire on the church premises.

PROGRESSIVE WINE MAN LEFT BIG ESTATE

Charles Louis Kunde of Kenwood, who met a violent and untimely death while visiting in Germany, left a big estate. The property consists of several fine ranches, an apartment house in San Francisco, valuable personal property and money in banks.

Mrs. Marie Kunde of Kenwood has filed petitions for special letters of administration on the estate of her late husband, and for probate of his will, dated Oct. 14, 1921.

The will, witnessed by Hiram E. Casey and Louis R. Lambert, leaves the property to the widow and children, making certain bequests to members of his own family in Germany. The children are Arthur Kunde, Alice Behler, both of Kenwood; Emma Gerhardt, Sebastopol; Irene Clark, Santa Rosa; Edith Kunde of Kenwood, Eleanor M. Kunde is the daughter of the deceased son, Kurt. The relatives in Germany are Minna Neuman, Klotzsche, Bie Dresden; Emma Galdberg, Grassdona, Saxony; Walter Neuman, Dresden, Nestadt and Auguste Krymholtz, Kirck Strasse, Zittau, Sachsen, Germany.

Casey & Lambert represent the petitioner.

According to late word received from relatives in Germany, the body was mangled and he died almost instantly. The remains were cremated and buried in a family plot in Germany.

Mr. Kunde was a progressive citizen of Sonoma County and only recently made a trip with the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce to Mexico, which he looked over for possibilities along the line of the wine grape industry. He had also acquired a big ranch at Paso Robles just prior to going abroad.

The Kunde cellars at Wildwood are famous for the vintage produced there over 100,000 gallons of choice wines being part of the property. Mr. Kunde took a great pride in the quality of his Cabernet wines, which prior to prohibition were in great demand in the New York market.

The surviving son, Arthur Kunde, took charge of the extensive business interests of the family upon his father's departure for Germany.

It is said to be a story of impetuous love set against a background of the most dangerous sport known to man—bullfighting.

ACT FOR EX-SOLDIERS TO BE VOTED ON

All members of the California Veterans' Bond Campaign Committee are well aware of the utmost friendliness of all newspapers to ex-service men and their welfare. But even the most friendly and helpful of the newspapers have several times fallen into the error of using the word bonus in headlines over articles concerning Propositions One and Three on the November ballot. While we realize that this error is unintentional, it is nevertheless injurious, inasmuch as there is a decided feeling on the part of many that bonuses should not be granted. The word bonus in connection with the proposed California legislation for ex-service men is, entirely erroneous, as there is no bonus feature to any of this legislation. The acts provide solely for a loan to veterans by the State, with which veterans may buy homes and farms at low interest and on long time payments. Not a penny of the expenditure will affect taxation, as the veteran assumes principal, interest and all administrative expense, while the State is secured until the end of the contract by the real estate. Please accept the thanks of the Bond Committee for the splendid publicity you have thus far given these measures.

WOMEN CONVICTS NOT WANTED BY SONOMA

Reformers, with their customary short-sighted effort to revolutionize society in a fortnight and achieve the millennium through some short cut like the passage of a law or a set of resolutions, have come out in favor of transferring the 50 women prisoners at San Quentin to the beautiful environs of the Farm for Delinquent Women at Buena Vista. Fortunate for Sonoma Valley, the powers-that-be, including the prison directors and Warden Johnson, do not look upon the plan with favor. Local property owners and residents are decidedly opposed to the foisting of these convicts on Sonoma Valley. We have had ample opportunity to judge the farm already, and do not hesitate to say that as a penal institution it is a failure, because it is a menace to the community and a nuisance to local officers.

The beautiful old estate, with its rambling acreage running back into the hills has no semblance of a prison. It is already taken advantage of from that fact. To bring 50 San Quentin inmates here, unconfined, without guards and a prison wall, is unthinkable. Surely the people of the surrounding country are to be thought of, despite theorists of the W. C. T. U. Perhaps if these good women knew how the handful already at the farm have acted, they would hesitate to pass their sob-sister resolutions. Perhaps if they were informed that there has been leaks, escapades and communication with companions on the outside, they might understand something of the danger such an institution is in our midst.

As to the sympathy felt for the dark, dingy quarters of the San Quentin prisoners, the lack of gardens and congenial household tasks, it might be more womanly if reformers sought out worthy women whose lot, through misfortune, instead of vice, has brought them to dwell amid tawdry, colorless surroundings—the sick, the maimed or the old of the tenements—why not think of these? If San Quentin's women convicts need better than Warden Johnson's institution provides, let the 500 women of the recommending W. C. T. U. offer them homes among their own numbers, providing them with flowers, culture and influence as needed. Almost any home is as equipped to house a prisoner as the Buena Vista Farm. All that might be needed would be the pacifying cigarette, which is regarded as an aid to discipline out at the farm. The splendid, modern hospital put up for this class of state charges, might also be lacking, but then again might not this fine hospital be appreciated by the law-abiding citizens of the community and taken over by them? Sonoma Valley certainly needs a hospital.

No, society is certainly topsy-turvy when we must view such reforms as this institution has undertaken and witness the money spent thereon. The W. C. T. U. and reformers who advocate such experiments seem to ignore the fact that 90 per cent of those whom they seek to benefit belong to the moron class and are lacking in the qualities to which reformers would make an appeal. A deficiency is irremediable and constitutes a menace to society. If reform is to succeed it must wield its influence over younger offenders who have strayed, instead of wasting chatter on convicted, hard-boiled specimens to be found at the state farm. Discipline and incarceration as provided at San Quentin by the humane Warden Johnson are necessary for the control of the class of prisoners confined there and if improvements in their surroundings are advocated, the beautification program should be carried out inside the walls of that institution. Sonoma has a big enough problem at its door right now.

WRIGHT ACT WOULD COMPOUND ERROR

Two wrongs do not make a right, which is the reason we oppose the Wright Act. If the United States has enacted legislation which does not work, why should the states compound the error and tempt more officials to go wrong. Bribery, extortion, blackmail and a train of evils would result from the enactment of the Wright Act in California, where the people have repeatedly shown by their vote that they are not in sympathy with prohibition.

The bootlegger would not be suppressed, but would flourish in proportion to the political pull he could exert or the hush money he could pay. Federal officials have been caught in enough unsavory affairs to convince voters that a law as manifestly disregarded as Volsteadism would not be any better enforced by more officers, particularly city policemen and hometown constables and deputy sheriffs. It would all result in making prohibition a greater farce and hold-up than it now is.

Once in a while there is a gleam of reason in the talk of prohibitionists themselves, for instance, Robert W. Babson, the statistician acknowledges that "until the desires (or what the preachers call 'hearts') of people are changed, legislation does not accomplish much. Such legislation is like painting a building which has rotten timbers. It is like ordering water to run uphill. We can pump water uphill, but as soon as we stop pumping, the water runs back again. This does not mean that the prohibition amendment will be repealed, but it does mean that the American people were not ready for it."

Despite the many states which have fallen in line with national dry legislation, the bootlegger flourishes throughout the United States. The Literary Digest says: "Nobody will dispute the soundness of a doctrine that so long as prohibition is the law of the land, it ought to be enforced. But the objectors to the Literary Digest's poll overlook one important fact, namely that prohibition is NOT being enforced. The fact is patent to every person with half an eye."

We believe California has had its eyes sufficiently opened to the weakness of prohibition and will hesitate to give any wider rein to those who are profiting by it.

RICHARDSON THE FRIEND OF THE TAXPAYER

We believe that the Republican gubernatorial nominee, Friend W. Richardson, will forge right ahead with his economy program and win with flying colors in November. Professional politicians have been sent a-scurrying since they found out that Richardson meant business and that economy was not just a catch word to get him the Republican nomination. They can now lie or ally with his opponent all they please, but the people of California will not swerve an iota when it comes to marking their ballot for governor—for Governor Richardson, the man whose record as state treasurer is one of the proudest records in the archives of California. Richardson thinks more of the ship of state than he does of machines and a whole lot more of the taxpayer than he does of the politician.

A noted writer has discovered that it is not the laboring man but the public that is the under dog. Yes, and they got to quit kickin' that dog around.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

B. Montini, brother of William Montini, formerly of the Emparan ranch, has again leased the property. B. Montini is an ex-service man and an experienced young dairyman.

The Sonoma Valley and San Rafael auto bus line is accommodating its patrons south of town since the closing of the Black Point cut-off route by transferring passengers for Schellville and the Waller Tract at the intersection of the Petaluma road and Broadway. All traffic will be by way of Petaluma until November, when the Black Point road will be open.

Mrs. Walter Paulson is visiting her sister, Camilla, in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Hayter are rejoicing over the arrival of a pretty baby girl. Their little son, Ward, is 15 months old. Dr. Thomson was in attendance.

J. B. Small, who has been enjoying a vacation of several weeks and mingling with prominent Democratic politicians in San Francisco and suburbs, returned home Monday evening. Mr. Small is an ex-justice of the peace and is the father of our present judge, Joseph Lester Small.

E. G. Lynch, proprietor of the Sonoma Valley Dairy, has been in Mendocino county this week, looking after his ranch property on Brushy Mountain.

Mrs. Meta Gottenberg, widow of Jack Gottenberg, of this place, was married last week in San Francisco to A. Kempton of Los Angeles.

Mrs. Carrie Burlingame has been named Sunday school superintendent for Agua Caliente, where a large class meets every Sunday afternoon in the Flowery school house.

Dr. Lowe, the eyesight specialist, will be in Sonoma at the Union Hotel on Oct. 5th. See him about your eyes if they trouble you. Examination and consultation free.—adv.

Tom Willett, an old Sonoma boy, now a prosperous resident of Oakland has been spending his vacation amid old friends. He has been registered at the Toscano.

BLACK POINT CUT-OFF CONSTRUCTION REPORT

The following is the latest report from the engineer with reference to the Black Point Cut-off:

Grant Smith Asphalt Contract
In the past ten days the average daily rate of completion on this work has slightly increased.

Three and one-half inch pavement is now laid to the top of Sears Point hill, 12,700 feet east of Black Point bridge. The unfinished gap of a mile between the bridge and the west cut near Black Point station at the junction of the Novato road is now being graded and about 10 days should see substantial progress toward the completion of this section of the contract.

The auxiliary asphalt plant is now completed and will be at work on Monday, Sept. 18th.

During the past 10 days the rate of daily completion would indicate Dec. 1, 1922, as the finishing date, but with the operation of the additional plant and with the added facilities at the terminals for the handling of the product it will be safe to assume that the date of completion will be advanced about 27 days from the last mentioned date, which will bring completion of this contract on or about Nov. 2, 1922.

Healy Tibbetts Co. Gravel Road
This work is now showing encouraging progress, the road insofar as the public is concerned is now complete from Sonoma Creek to the Napa county line.

Subgrading is progressing rapidly on the Fairville end of this work, another road roller having been added to the equipment.

Nearly a mile of this end has been graveled but not rolled, water pipes are now in operation along this end of the contract producing better results and enabling more efficient and speedy work.

The daily rate of completion on this work is greatly increased and if the same rate of progress be maintained on the balance of this work, you may expect completion of this contract on or about Oct. 25th, 1922.

Following is the ratio of completion of the foregoing contracts, as of Sept. 16, 1922:

Grant Smith Company, Black Point end, 67.68 per cent.
Healy Tibbetts Company, Napa end, 86.98 per cent.

Respectfully submitted,
H. H. JONES,
Examining Engineer.

WANT WOMEN PRISONERS SENT TO SONOMA FARM

The following resolution was adopted by the W. C. T. U. of Sonoma county, in annual convention Sept. 7th and 8th:

Whereas, It is represented to this body that the 50 women prisoners in San Quentin are poorly housed; that their quarters are dark and dingy; that there is no space in which to grow flowers, or for them to busy themselves in and about small chores or duties dear to all women; that it is necessary to keep them confined within close quarters for lack of space and for moral reasons; and

Whereas, The home of delinquent women at Sonoma, Cal., containing 640 acres, and having room for 75 inmates, has been purchased by the State of California and set apart for the care and custody of women convicted of crime, and

Whereas, The natural surroundings at said home are such as to tend to the highest degree to win back to the paths of righteousness and lawful duty those who may be confined there in; therefore, but it

Resolved, by the Women's Christian Temperance Union of Sonoma county in annual convention assembled at Santa Rosa, Cal., this 8th day of September, 1922, and representing 500 women voters and taxpayers of Sonoma county and the State of California, do hereby petition the state prison board to transfer to the home for delinquent women at Sonoma, Cal. all women prisoners now confined at San Quentin; and be it further

Resolved, That we earnestly request all judges in the jurisdiction of said home to commit to said home all women convicted before them to the end that said home may fulfill the end to which it was created; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be sent to the governor of the State of California, to each member of the prison board, to the warden of San Quentin, to Senator Slater, to each assemblyman from Sonoma county and a copy to the press.

In witness whereof we, the committee have signed these presents the day and year last written above.

MRS. EMMA KENNEDY,
MRS. M. H. REEVES,
MRS. F. E. SCOTTFORD,
Committee.

MRS. ROBERT P. HILL BROKE BOTH WRISTS

Mrs. Robert P. Hill had a most unfortunate accident last week when she fell from the steps of her cottage at Dillon Beach and broke both her wrists. She went to Petaluma for first aid and was later taken to the Lane hospital in San Francisco, where the injuries were X-rayed and the broken bones set. Many Sonoma Valley friends will wish the Glen Ellen matron speedy and complete recovery from the injury which will handicap her most distressingly for some weeks to come.

SONOMA HAS UPHOLSTERING FIRM

Sonoma Valley is to have a new upholstery firm, Stillings & Son, who will repair and renovate furniture, make and remake mattresses and do everything in that line at reasonable rates. The firm will have its headquarters for the present at the Stillings place, next to Oak Grove resort. Geo. H. Stillings and his son, recently from New York will turn out first class work. See ad.

When the Cows Come Home

When the cows come home, what do they bring?

Some bring profits which result in good homes, education and pleasures of life. Other cows bring hard work and continual poverty.

What the cows bring home depends largely on what kind of a sire they had. Good Pure Bred Bulls will increase the milk checks at least $25 per cow per year.

That is all it takes to order a Pure Bred Dairy Bull.

Sonoma and Marin County dairymen who have not learned the details of this plan should ask any banker or creamery man about it. The Good Pure Bred Bull makes a difference—

PURE BRED BULL CAMPAIGN PROGRESS

The reports of the first day's activity in the plan of securing good bulls show that there is considerable variety of opinion on what kind of cows dairymen prefer. Some like the Holsteins, other Guernseys or Jerseys and another might demand an Ayre-shire.

R. E. Brooks, committeeman in Petaluma, took an order for the first Guernsey bull which goes to Fred C. Richardson.

Joe Gallagher, committeeman for Bodega, sold the first Jersey bull to P. D. Albini.

Dr. W. H. Busher, committeeman from Novato, sold the first Holstein bull to E. Bryant.

Dairymen of Sonoma and Marin counties have the best opportunity ever offered to get good bulls at a reasonable price. Many dairymen find it difficult and expensive to get good pure bred bulls and as a result many use just any kind of a bull that will make his cows freshen.

The University of California has been asked by the dairymen of this section to aid them in securing good bulls at a reasonable cost. It has been arranged so that each dairyman can specify the kind of a bull he wants and the bulls will then be selected by expert cattle judges, and brought in by the carload.

Eighteen banks in the dairy district have agreed to co-operate in the movement by advancing money for the purchase of these bulls. The dairyman pays only $25 down, or if he wishes to assign his scrub bull to the bank, it is not necessary to make any cash payment.

The details of the plan have been outlined to about 50 committeemen, who start at once to explain this plan to the other dairymen. The committee selected here is as follows:

L. L. Stenquist, W. F. Clewe, Ray Hunter, Ralph Hotz, Henry Bates and Joseph Vella.

ATTRACTIVE INVESTMENT—TREASURY CERTIFICATES

The secretary of the United States Treasury has just made an announcement of special concern to all who are holders or prospective investors in Treasury Savings Certificates.

Summarized briefly, Secretary Mellon announces that, commencing on Oct. 1, 1922, a change takes place in treasury savings certificates, which then and thereafter will be issued in new form only at the following prices:

$1000 certificates for $820, instead of $800.

$100 certificates for $82, instead of $80.

$25 certificates for $20.50, instead of $20.

Also, that the sale of $1 treasury savings stamps will be discontinued then.

In view of steadily declining interest returns on all desirable securities, the new 4 per cent treasury savings certificates announced are very attractive investments, providing as they do, ideal means of saving with absolute safety and liberal interest; ready cash if withdrawn.

Any individual or organization can own from $25 to $5000 worth of treasury savings certificates issued in any one year. They can be obtained at all money order post offices and at Federal Reserve Banks and from or through most other banking institutions.

EL VERANO NEWS

awaits the charming bride. Mr. Zampa is a well known business man of that city and the happy couple were busy Sunday receiving congratulations from their Sonoma Valley friends.

Harry Stillings, a native of El Verano, who has been in New York for some time, arrived home Saturday. Mr. Stillings looks well and says things in the big city are the bunk. He will remain in the Sonoma Valley, and is at present the guests of his folks.

This is the last week in which to register. Anyone not already registered may get on the great register for the November election up to Saturday evening, Oct. 7th. Tom Mullen is registering at Mullen's Store, El Verano, Jim Baines at Boyes Springs and George Breitenbach at Sonoma.

Mrs. McDevitt, who recently lost her good husband, is having more trouble. The loss of 54 chickens, evidently poisoned, has caused much speculation as to who would do such a trick. Surely this widow woman has enough trouble in the world without the chicken poisoner hurting her.

Albert Rossi and Carl Weaver are on their way to Tia Juana in the former's touring car, where they will spend a few days at the races, looking 'em over and picking the winners and otherwise forgetting business worries. They will enjoy camping on their trip and will also take in the Yosemite Valley before returning.

Last week the French Cottage management took their guests for an outing and picnic to Napa. A good time was enjoyed and a fine lunch served. Ma Verdier, famous cook of the Cottage, prepared the feast, which was enjoyed by all. Paul Verdier was at the wheel of the auto bus which conveyed the pleasure seekers and handled the gas machine like a veteran.

The commercial travelers throughout the state, held the reins over the Boyes Springs and Agua Caliente section last Saturday and Sunday, celebrating their annual outing. Over 500 members were present. A grand ball, which was full of pep and jazzy music, was the big event at Boyes Saturday evening. Sunday was spent in games and a plunge at the springs. The traveling boys had a good time and will long remember the hospitality of the Sonoma Valley people.

The new chalk mine on the Goldstein ranch, in the eastern foothills, is being operated by a force of 19 men. The proprietors claim this to be the best chalk mine in California and when in full operation will produce 10 tons per day. The Valley of the Moon which is famous for its minerals, is now considered one of the chalk centers of the state. When in full operation many more men will be employed to keep this big project going. Experts pronounce the product of the highest.

Harlan Bunker, much touted heavy-eight aspirant under the management of Mayor Parente of Verano, of whom great things were expected, met his finish last week at Oakland when he ran into a crushing right swing from the ground up, delivered by Cliff Kramer. The blow connected with the ex-soldier's eye, putting him to sleep for several minutes. Frankie Denny of Oakland slugged himself to victory on the same evening. Both boys were training at Parente's training quarters for their bouts.

Last Sunday, F. Katen of Petaluma and Miss Rose Lewis, sister of Mrs. Ben Streeter of El Verano, were married at Cotati. After the wedding ceremony a dinner was given the happy newlyweds by the mother of the bride, after which they autoed to the Streeter home and before starting on their honeymoon south were given a wedding breakfast Monday morning by Mrs. Streeter. The bride is a popular girl and resided in Sonoma for some time. On their return they will make their home in the Liberty district, Petaluma, where Mr. Katen owns a large poultry farm.

FINE NEW AUTO STAGES

Manager Jones of the Red Line auto stages which run between Petaluma and Sonoma Valley points, states that next season he will put on several fine new auto stages of large passenger capacity and they will be excelled by those of no other line.

ACCREDITED HATCHERY; WHAT ITS PURPOSE IS

By E. R. TEMPERLI
Poultry Flock Inspector

To explain this phrase one must go back a short while so as to be able to give one a line on just what started the Sonoma County Farm Bureau Accredited Hatcheries.

The first and main object of the Farm Bureau in any county is to foster and improve agricultural conditions. When any branch of agriculture is exceptionally strong in any county, one of the first accomplishments of the Farm Bureau is the formation of a separate department such as the dairy department, horticultural department, poultry department, etc. About two years ago the poultry department of the Sonoma County Farm Bureau was formed, and in aiding the poultry industry this department has accomplished several things, namely the egg laying contest, the cockerel auction sale, the utility poultry and several minor objects but always, through all this work, the hope and the desire of the department has been to do something to improve the quality of the baby chicks.

Last fall an opportunity presented itself so that the poultry department was able to interest several hatcheries in making an attempt to get better stock. It was decided to invite all the hatchery men of Sonoma county to a meeting with the poultry department to see if a working agreement could be drawn between the hatcheries and the farm bureau whereby a systematized attempt to improve the breeding stock throughout the county could be formulated. After several meetings the present accredited hatchery plan was drafted and was presented to all the hatcherymen. A majority of the hatcherymen present signed this contract and since this contract has been in operation six more hatcheries have signed.

There are 10 rules under which the accredited hatcheries are co-operating with the farm bureau and they are printed on stickers sent out by each of the accredited hatcheries with every order. If for any reason a hatchery is taken from the accredited list, these stickers are refused him and his removal from the list is published.

So far the work has progressed very favorably; there has been a few misunderstandings that have been cleared up between some of the hatcheries and the farm bureau, several men that wished to sell hatching eggs but who refused to co-operate in any way have been dropped. During the last winter over 7000 colored or spotted hens have been removed from the breeding flocks and during the same period wherever disease was found in the breeding flocks the supply of hatching eggs from these flocks was cut off so that only the eggs from healthy birds were received by accredited hatcheries. There were 11 of such cases.

With reference to the coming year's work, all the accredited hatcheries have been able to get plenty of cockerels with pedigrees to meet the next year's agreement, and this was made possible through cooperation with the farm bureau, the culling that was necessary for this work has been progressing in fine shape and is almost completed, so that the stock to be used for next year's breeding by the accredited hatcheries will be better than has ever been used before.

OWNER OF RAMELLI RANCH COMPLIMENTED

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel R. Stewart, O. Patocchi and daughters, Misses Sylvia and Ida Patocchi and Mr. and Mrs. I. Pronini, who are leaving Lakeville, were the guests of honor at a farewell party given Wednesday evening of last week by the Lakeville Social Club at its social hall.

The season's flowers decorated the hall. Card playing and dancing were part of the evening's entertainment.

Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Stewart have purchased a ranch in Sonoma Valley, where they will make their home.

WILL ASK FOR LIVESTOCK EXTENSION WORKERS

Addressing the Southern California Purebred Livestock Association at its recent meeting at Santa Monica, Prof. Gordon H. True, head of the Animal Husbandry Department of the University of California College of Agriculture and dean of the University Farm School at Davis, announced that the next legislature would be requested to appropriate funds for the employment of six new livestock extension specialists in addition to the one dairy specialist now employed.

Three of the new men are desired for work among beef cattle producers and two for dairy work and one for swine extension work.

Indiana, a state much smaller than California, has 26 livestock extension men, Professor True pointed out.

Referring to the Los Angeles Union stockyards now being rushed to a completion at a 100 acre site adjoining the east city limits of Los Angeles, Professor True said that a central market may be expected to help the small producer materially.

There will have to be a readjustment of conditions in the cattle industry. The ranges will have to be reserved to a large extent for breeding stock and our meat animals will have to be fed out on the valley ranches. We have proved by recent experiments on a large scale that young stock grown out on valley ranches will be larger at 18 months than steers two and three years of age off the ranges, the professor stated.

While official announcement has not been made, it is said that the College of Agriculture experimental work has shown that the average calf crop of 50 per cent or less in California may, by good management, be increased with ease to more than 70 per cent.

Mrs. E. Burmester of El Verano was shopping in the metropolis Monday last.

Mrs. Mary Valente Allen of San Francisco and her sister-in-law were visitors here Sunday.

The final test

The real value of a motor lubricant can be determined in only one way—through its use in the engine for which it is intended.

Hence this company maintains an engine-testing laboratory, equipped with a Sprague dynamometer, in which Zerolene and other lubricants are constantly being tested under actual operating conditions.

This dynamometer laboratory is in charge of competent trained men, who spend all their time in conducting comparative tests of Zerolene and other lubricants in automobile, airplane, marine, truck and tractor engines.

Correct Lubrication Recommendations

On the results of these tests, supplemented by equally careful tests in the field and on the road, our Board of Lubrication Engineers bases its Chart of Recommendations.

Close attention is given to the design and construction of the engine. It is necessary to know, first, the speed of the bearing surfaces; second, clearance between bearing surfaces; third, temperatures at which bearings operate; fourth, pressures exerted in each bearing; fifth, the means provided for the distribution of the oil to each bearing.

The recommendations embodied in the Zerolene Chart are calculated with the greatest precision, and if Zerolene is used in accordance with them, correct lubrication and maximum fuel mileage are assured.
